It's a Culinary Adventure

August 10, 2010

In your box this week, you will receive:

- Walla Walla sweet onions
- Squash, mixed
- Cucumbers
- Most of you will get a mixed set of lettuce, a few will get a salad mix
- Peppers
- Tomatoes
- Melon
- Japanese eggplant
- Peaches for medium and large share members
- Cabbage or cauliflower
- Sweet corn
- Growers Choice

Some notes on your box contents. The melons will be either cantaloupe or galia for the small and medium share members and watermelon for the large share members. This is the last cauliflower for this part of the season. It is possible we might get a crop of fall cauliflower.

Tomatoes. Remember to pick up our tomatoes separate from your box. Look for the lugs that say small, medium or large that have bags of tomatoes. Pick up the size that reflects your share size. We are segregating the tomatoes to avoid them getting smushed in your box.

Your Farmer
